

1. RECOGNITION

Inclusion in the IDAK Digital and Online Membership Directory
Membership Number and card identifies you as a Current IDAK member who accepts the Code of Ethics.
Provide clients with knowledge they are working with a well informed and educated Interior Designer

2. EDUCATION

Regional and local education programs with some offering continuous educational units
IDAK partners and holds educational tours available to exclusively its members and their guests.
IDAK partners, sponsors and supports various national and international seminars, conferences, Expos and other forums

3. NETWORKING

Knowledge sharing and Networking achieved through events (general meetings, activities, educational seminars and special events) organized for members.
The Association acts as a forum where members discuss and agree on issues that affect the interior design industry.
IDAK has a National, Regional and international Subscriptions giving members opportunity to be part of the international Built Environment community.

4. INFORMATION

Unlimited Access to Members only IDAK Website area
Established e- newsletter, Hot topics, articles on latest trends, newest products and tips on improving your business
Participation in the Membership surveys and access to results

5. RESOURCES

Access to the latest product available- at a discounted prices
Discount on design publications
The Association Members subscribe to Code of Conduct which the industry uses for self regulation.
Through the Code, IDAK highlights the best practices in Interior design for responsible use and implementation of sustainable development practice for the industry.

5. LEGISLATIVE REPRESENTATION

IDAK is championing a legislation to regulate the practice of interior design in Kenya. Members are continually informed on the progress made towards the legislative process .participate in IDAK committees, vote, nominated and hold office
IDAK protects your interests by monitoring legislations, policies and regulations that affects the right of practice in interior design in Kenya ad region.
IDAK helps members follow developments on issues of management and policy guidelines in the built environment.